Customized security strategy

IP audio systems are simpler to install and integrate with video surveillance systems than analog ones. It gives you better options: easier to use and more cost-effective. Plus, our new IP audio systems are compatible well with them.

You can also proactively deal with events detected by cameras by immediately giving the right messages to audiences with IP speakers.

Adding IP audio systems to the video surveillance system gives us a wide range of opportunities allowing customized security strategy under multiple environments and circumstances.

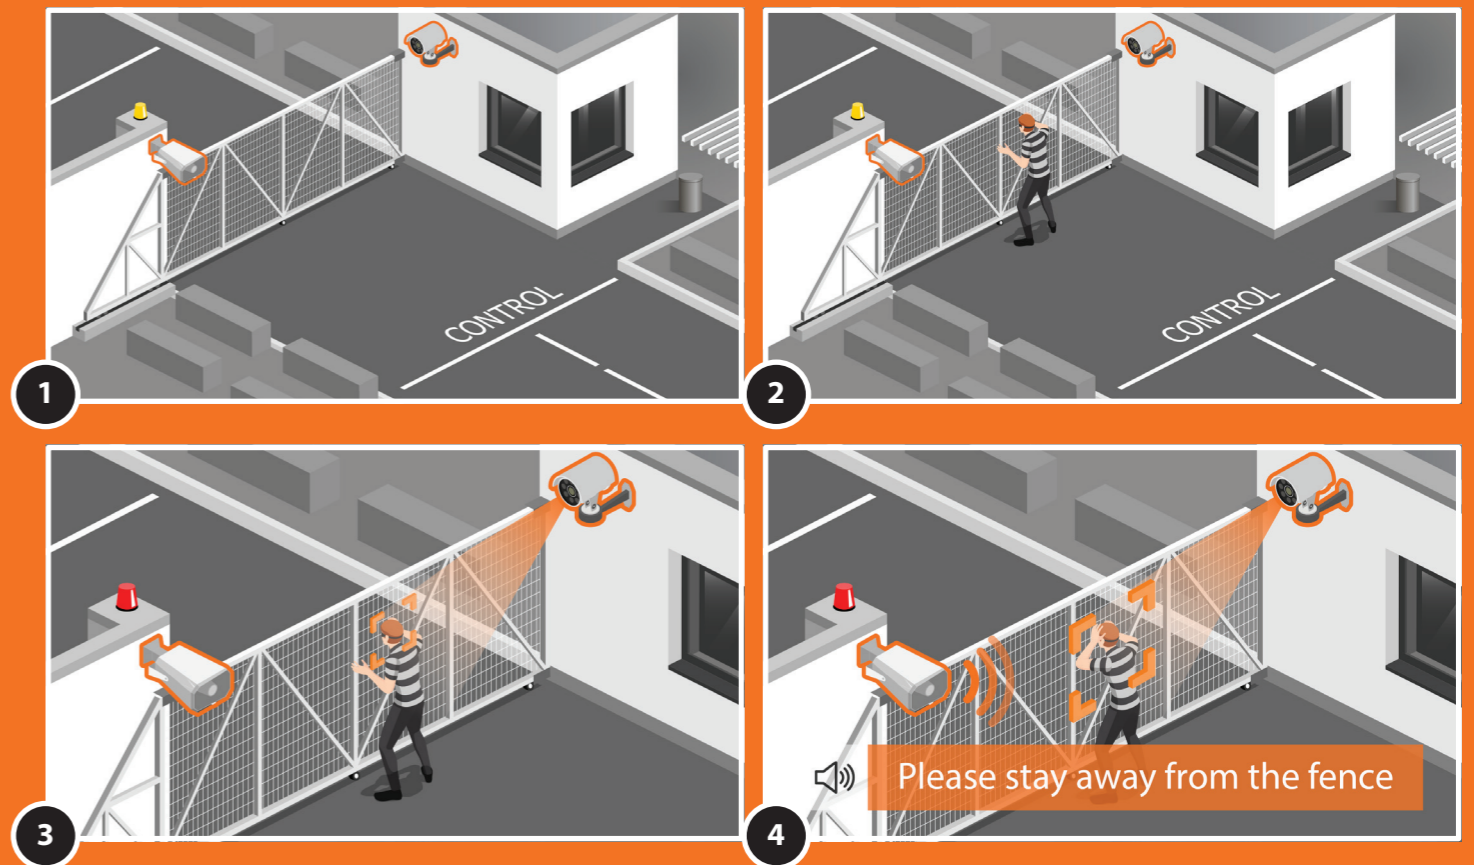

Prevent any hazards around your property

The compelling combination of camera and audio system helps you take proactive action right after detecting any intrusion attempts. The alarming message through IP audio systems effectively warns intruders and prevents any predictable losses.

USE CASE EXAMPLE

Fence / Borderline

Offer a better and safer banking experience at ATM

You can maintain security and order by using cameras equipped with analytics such as a social distance alarm to trigger pre-recorded announcements for customers in line like "Please keep your distance" with IP speakers.

USE CASE EXAMPLE

ATM

Prevent any risks and keep stores well-managed

Gently notify customers with the Dwell time trigger equipped with cameras to release an announcement like "Welcome to our store. If you need any assistance, please call our staff near you." This message would intervene in any suspicious moves from a stranger.

Shop / Department Store

Efficiently operate buildings with background music and broadcast

Add a lively mood to the customer experience. IP speaker allows rich-sounding background music. In addition, it's easy to manage announcements at any time and anywhere with live or pre-recorded voices.
